William (Bill) Bley, AAP

Bill Bley is President & CEO of the Northwest Clearing House Association (NWCHA), a non-profit trade association assisting financial institutions and corporations with ACH, check and other payment system education, risk prevention and promotion.

Bill has worked in the financial industry for 28 years, primarily as the manager of operating departments supporting retail and commercial cash management products. Bill is a member of NACHA's Rules & Operations Committee, the Arbitration Board and The Payments Institute faculty.

Bill graduated from Northern Illinois University with a BA in Sociology and Secondary Education. He attended the Northwestern University Kellogg Graduate School of Management, the Pacific Coast Banking School and is an Accredited ACH Professional.

The session will review what happened in the ACH Network during 2009 and what is planned by NACHA in 2010. The issues include:

- Taking advantage of IAT (International ACH Transactions) and the Fed's increased international endpoints
- Rules Simplification – status on this change to the ACH Rules
- Mobile Payments and the ACH
- New initiative from NACHA's Electronic Check Council
- Will ACH B-to-B ever take off? What NACHA is doing to increase corporate payments
- Current status of corporate account takeover scams using the ACH to defraud businesses

Lunch Menu – Very Good
